

Coastal Romance

A modern concept influenced by the fairytale surroundings of the Amalfi Coast...

Supplied by Emma Hill Film & Photography

This intimate elopement shoot features dreamy florals, the beautiful views of the Amalfi coast and a boat ride overlooking Positano at sunset. The shoot was planned for October, a perfect time to visit the Amalfi coast, without the crowds, but with blissful temperatures and rays of sun! The venue was Le Nereidi in Furore which has a panoramic terrace with views overlooking the sea, a huge pool and even a beautiful church nestled in the courtyard. Organised by Nicola Dixon of Wild Ones, the styling for this shoot was romantic and elegant, featuring stunning florals, a reception table set up on the terrace styled by Love Story Events Italy, and a boat trip along the famous coastline with Exclusive Cruises. The florist, Sass Flower, created a beautiful floral installation of two pillars for the ceremony spot, with roses in soft blush pinks and peaches. The idea was to surround the couple with lush and beautiful flowers, including the boat which was decorated with both florals and foliage. For the wedding looks, we were inspired by the charming backdrop and picked ultra-romantic outfits. Meg wore a gorgeous two-piece set designed by Halfpenny London from The White Closet, while Trey opted for a smart black Tux suit.
